The safety of our children is the responsibility of every Christian. Anyone aware of the abuse of a person under the age of eighteen is required by law to report this to the proper state authorities: local law enforcement Sheriff: (270) 237-3210 or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877- KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331). To report to the diocese abuse by church personnel (paid or volunteer) either past or present, please call the Pastoral Assistance Coordinator at this confidential phone line: 270-852-8380. The Diocese of Owensboro has just revised its sexual abuse policy, and it is available at this parish (in the parish office & on the bulletin board) and on the diocesan web site <https://owensborodiocese.org/reporting/>.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Jer 31:7-9

Heb 5:1-6

Mk 10:46-52

*Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind
man, saying to him,
"Take courage; get up,
he is calling you."*

MARK 10:49

Shout with Joy

After the previous Sunday's focus on suffering, today's readings depict excitement. Refugees are coming home. They had been locked away and now they are free. These were vulnerable people that others did not value. Now they are going home. They have been gathered in God's embrace. Who wouldn't rejoice?

The Gospel tells of one man who is blind and begging. However, his blindness did not prevent him from seeing. He seems to have known who Jesus was and that Jesus could help him. And so, he cries out, "Have pity on me" (Mark 10:47). This man was begging outside of the city. Because of his blindness, he was shunned and rendered unemployable. All that was left for him was to beg—and beg he did. Not for money, but for sight. Jesus very clearly tells him that his faith saved him. Only then was the man healed. He had believed that Jesus has the power of new life. Like the people in the first reading, he was given a chance for a new life. No longer was he an outcast; he could now join the community. No longer was he confined to begging. He could now flourish in life.

These are not merely awe-inspiring stories. As disciples we have been called to continue Jesus' ministry in our lives—to embrace those who are lost and help them find the warmth and security of home. We are called to help those struggling with life's hardships to see the compassion of Jesus.

Mass Intentions

- Sunday – For Members of this Parish
- Tuesday – For the hungry and homeless
- Wednesday – For those who suffer evil & injustice

Please contact the office if you would like your loved ones to be remembered in Mass Intentions

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Lord Jesus may the fire of your love consume me and transform my life that I may truly desire nothing more than life with you. Fill me with the power of your Holy Spirit that I may always seek to please you and do your will.

All Saints Day on November 1st is not a Holy Day of obligation this year, falling on a Monday. Mass will still be offered at 5 pm. Mass for All Souls Day on November 2 remains at 5 p m.

THANKSGIVING

The time is approaching for the Thanksgiving food boxes. If you know anyone in need of the help for their Thanksgiving dinner, please contact Pauline or any King's Angel with names and family size. We have bags in the Narthex, with a list of items needed. Please take a bag if you can help. For those that want to donate money, instead of shopping, Pauline will buy the necessary items.

ANGEL TREE

The Angel Tree will also be available this year. The Angel Tree program helps provide Christmas gifts for children in Allen County. If you know of children in need, we will require their contact info: age, gender, size and likes. Please see any King's Angel.

Saint of the day – St. Anthony M Claret

Born 23 December 1807 at Sallent, Catalonia, Spain. He worked as a weaver in his youth. Seminary student with St. Francisco Coll Guitart. Ordained on 13 June 1835. Missionary in Catalonia and the Canary Islands. Directed retreats. Founded the Congregation of Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (Claretians). Archbishop of Santiago de Cuba on 20 May 1850. Founded the Teaching Sisters of Mary Immaculate. Following his work in the Caribbean, Blessed Pope Pius IX ordered Anthony back to Spain. Confessor to Queen Isabella II and was exiled with her. Had the gifts of prophecy and miracles. Reported to have preached 10,000 sermons, published 200 works. Spread devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Died 24 October 1870 in a Cistercian monastery at Fontfroide, Narbonne, France. Canonized 7 May 1950 by Pope Pius XII. [From Laudate]

Afghan Parolee Volunteers Needed

Catholic Charities is excited about partnering with the International Center of Kentucky to welcome 300 Afghan arrivals into our diocese as their new home. Afghan families and individuals will be resettled in the Bowling Green and Owensboro areas. For the Bowling Green area, if you or your parish would like to volunteer, please visit <https://www.icofky.com/info> and/or donate items on this list <https://www.icofky.com/afghan-donation-page> to the International Center in Bowling Green (806 Kenton St.). Owensboro area parishes are asked to collect boys and men's clothing of all sizes up to an adult large for arriving Afghans. For more information on this please contact Heather Owens at hlucyowens@gmail.com or call her at 540-849-0479 or Catholic Charities at 270-683-1545.

Fund Raiser: In the back of the fellowship hall is a table set up with various items for sale. Not all the items are tagged so those just require a donation. All proceeds will go to the church's general fund. Check it out!

Dear Padre,

Why does Jesus refer to himself as the Son of Man? What does the title mean?

Jesus refers to himself as the Son of Man seventy-six times in the Gospels, so it's clearly one of his favorite titles. When people call him the Messiah, Jesus often corrects them by calling himself the Son of Man. That title has at least three meanings: the Son of Man in all his humanity, the suffering Son of Man, and the Son of Man who will come again.

Jesus uses the title to stress his true humanity and identify with us. Jesus as Son of Man must suffer and die. Every time Jesus prophesies about his death, it is as the Son of Man. Jesus connects the title with his passion and death, linking it to Isaiah 53, the great Song of the Suffering Servant. Also, in using that title Jesus is explicitly saying that he is the one fulfilling those prophecies of Isaiah and Daniel, as when he said in the synagogue, "Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21).

The Son of Man is God's powerful representative (Daniel 7:13) coming to establish the kingdom of God. To do so, the Son of Man suffers, dies, and rises. That one title, Son of Man, summarizes much of Jesus' work of redemption. He became fully human, suffering and dying to establish the kingdom of God.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

In the biblical tradition, the Son of Man is the one who receives from God "dominion, glory, and kingship" (Daniel 7:14). Jesus fills this image with new meaning. He shows us that he enjoys dominion because he is a servant, glory because he is capable of abasement, kingship because he is fully prepared to lay down his life.
