The safety of our children is the responsibility of every Christian. Anyone aware of the abuse of a person under the age of eighteen is required by law to report this to the proper state authorities: local law enforcement Sheriff: (270) 237-3210 or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877- KYSAFE1; 1-877-597-2331). To report to the diocese abuse by church personnel (paid or volunteer) either past or present, please call the Pastoral Assistance Coordinator at this confidential phone line: 270-852-8380. The Diocese of Owensboro has just revised its sexual abuse policy, and it is available at this parish (in the parish office & on the bulletin board) and also on the diocesan web site (www.rcdok.org/safe).

Second Sunday of Lent (Year A)

Sunday, March 8, 2020

Matthew 17:1-9

In the first historical activity recounted by the biblical author, Abram is commanded to leave his homeland and move family, flock and self to the “promised land”. Paul writing to Timothy encourages him and the community to “bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God.” The struggles of the Christian life will not be more than the community can bear, and for us, it is a gentle reminder that God helps us carry the cross. The apostle, Peter, sees the transfiguration of Jesus as an event announcing the end as a kind of harvest festival. “Let us erect three tents here...” The God who asks for sacrifice and sin offerings has different plans for Jesus. Moses might be buried by angels and Elijah might be transported into the heavens in a chariot of fire, but for Jesus, the end would be more like the sacrifice of Isaac though without a substitute filling his place. The voice of God commands them to “listen to him”. We are commanded to do the same. The transfiguration of Jesus holds the hope of better things to come. It shows the possibility of self-sacrifice for those who might otherwise only die. The suffering of Jesus offers Christians a way to interpret difficult times. Embracing the suffering of Christ, moving to new land, a new place, dying to self so that we might rise to new life is the message of the readings this Sunday. In so doing, our lives are transfigured becoming new, without fear of what lays ahead. Transformed in Christ, the follower becomes more like him who gave his life that we might live.

Join us every Wednesday in Lent for Stations of the Cross after 8:00 AM Mass.

PASTOR’S COLUMN
This week for my column I am going to simply relay a message directly from the bishop.
“Amid concerns of the spread of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19), the Diocese of Owensboro would like to take this time to share some information with our priests, parishioners, students, and staff.
The diocese is closely monitoring information from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the World Health Organization (WHO) and the Kentucky Department for Public Health (DPH) regarding the spread of this respiratory disease. The diocese has a flu pandemic policy that would be adapted and go into effect if the coronavirus becomes pandemic. This includes adjustments made in terms of liturgy, parishes, schools, and diocesan events.
As of today, March 4, 2020, there are zero confirmed cases in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and more than 100 confirmed cases in the United States. The CDC assessment of March 2, 2020 states, “For the general American public, who are unlikely to be exposed to this virus at this time, the immediate health risk from COVID-19 is considered low.” As we monitor the situation, if anything changes, priests, parishes, schools, and parents would be notified immediately.
In terms of Mass, Bishop William F. Medley believes it may be prudent to not offer the chalice containing the Precious Blood to the congregation throughout the season of Lent. This will be reevaluated after Lent and further recommendations made. As always during flu season, it is permissible to offer the Sign of Peace without the handshake.
The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) advises priests, deacons and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion to use proper hygiene by “washing hands before Mass begins,” and that if anyone is sick or experiencing symptoms of sickness they are “not obliged to attend Mass.” Please be looking for a follow-up email from Lauren Johnson, co-coordinator for the Office of Worship, for additional precautions and information regarding the liturgy.
We are reminded that the following are the best way to avoid all communicable illnesses • Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. Use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol if soap and water are not available. • Avoid close contact with those who are sick. • Stay home if you are sick (you should be fever-free for 24 hours before any public contact). • Cover your cough or sneeze with a tissue, then throw away the tissue and wash your hands for at least 20 seconds or use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer. • Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands. • Clean frequently touched areas/surfaces.
Please keep the situation regarding the coronavirus in prayer. Pray for those affected and impacted worldwide.”
Yours in Christ, Fr. Daniel
